Voters have three options for returning ballots in 2013 Election

Mail your ballot by Nov. 1 or deliver to a drop-off location by 7 p.m., Election Day

LITTLETON, Colo. – The Nov. 5 Coordinated Election is just around the corner, and Arapahoe County voters have three options for returning their mail-in ballots to ensure they are received on-time:

- 1) By Mail: Send your ballot via standard U.S. postal mail with 66 cents in postage no later than Friday, Nov. 1 to ensure it arrives in time for Election Day.
- 2) Drop-Boxes: Deliver your ballot to one of 19 convenient drop-off locations by 7 p.m. on Election Day.
- 3) Voter Service and Polling Centers: Visit one of four VSPC locations to drop off your ballot, vote at an accessible voting machine, request a replacement ballot if your ballot is spoiled, or register to vote and cast a ballot in-person. VSPC locations are open varying hours on weekdays until Election Day and also 9 a.m. – 1 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 2. On Election Day, all VSPC locations and Mail Ballot Drop-off locations will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

“Since the 2013 Coordinated Election is an all-mail-ballot election in Colorado, we will not have large-scale Vote Centers on Election Day,” said Clerk and Recorder Matt Crane. “Our active registered voters receive a mail ballot, allowing them to vote in the privacy and convenience of their own home.”

The deadline has passed to register to vote online in the Nov. 5 election. However, citizens can still register to vote in-person and cast a ballot at a VSPC through Election Day. Citizens who register to vote in-person will need to sign an affidavit affirming their identity, address, legal residency and voting age, under strict penalty of law.

More than 348,700 mail-in ballots have been mailed to Arapahoe County voters. As of 8 a.m. today, 47,877 voted ballots have been cast. Visit www.arapahoevotes.com and click on ‘2013 Election Information’ to find:
