Arapahoe County completes general election Board of Canvassers finalizes 2012 General Election results

LITTLETON, CO --- The Arapahoe County Clerk and Recorder's Office has completed the 2012 General Election with the results certified by the County Board of Canvassers on Nov. 21.

The County Board of Canvassers, which consisted of Nancy Doty as the Designated Elected Official, Arapahoe County Republican representative Tom Myers and Arapahoe County Democratic representative, Carolyn Boller, unanimously approved the official abstract of votes for the 2012 General Election.

The Board of Canvassers was required to certify the results of the General Election by Nov. 23. The duties of the Board include:

- Reviewing the Post-Election Manual Random Audit
- Reviewing all ballot forms and ballot logs associated with this election
- Comparing the number of ballots counted to the number of ballots cast
- Reviewing and certifying the results in the Official Abstract of Votes Cast

Arapahoe County gave voters three options for casting their ballot during this year's General Election. Voters could vote by mail, vote early or vote at a Vote Center on Election Day. Election turnout was 92.9 percent of the County's 309,745 total active voters. Arapahoe County has 384,591 registered voters.

Of the 288,033 ballots cast for the 2012 General Election, a majority, 77.76 percent or 223,981 ballots, were cast by mail. Election Day turnout was 36,846 ballots cast, or 12.79 percent, followed by Early Voting where 21,381 ballots, or 7.43 percent of the votes were cast. In addition, 5,825 provisional ballots, or 2.02 percent, were included in the total vote count.
