Commissioners declare Feb. 9 as Broncos Day in Arapahoe County

County employees to wear orange and blue to celebrate the Denver Broncos Super Bowl 50 win

LITTLETON, CO --- Congratulations to the Denver Broncos on their Super Bowl win last night.

To show our pride and support, the Arapahoe County Commissioners declared Feb. 9 Denver Broncos Day to celebrate the Arapahoe County-based Denver Broncos and their Super Bowl 50 win over the Carolina Panthers.

On Tuesday, Arapahoe County employees will wear their orange and blue to celebrate the Denver Broncos and their 2016 Super Bowl Championship.

“The Denver Broncos train in Arapahoe County and we couldn’t be more proud to now be the home of the World Super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos,” said Commissioner Nancy Doty, who serves as Board Chair. “Our employees have enthusiastically supported the Broncos throughout the season and now we want to give them the opportunity to celebrate our Super Bowl champions by wearing their Denver Broncos attire Tuesday.”
