Arapahoe/Douglas Works! Hiring Event at new Stanley Marketplace Sept. 24 More than 100 retail and hospitality positions available in Aurora

LITTLETON, CO --- Looking for a job in the Aurora Metro area? Look no further than the much anticipated Stanley Marketplace, a collaborative retail and restaurant concept expected to open this fall.

Arapahoe/Douglas Works!, along with Adams County and the Denver Office of Economic Development, is hosting a hiring event 1 - 4 p.m., Sept. 24 at Stanley Marketplace, 2501 N. Dallas St., Aurora, 80010. This hiring event is one of many activities A/D Works! is hosting through September as part of Workforce Development Month.

Participating employers include:

- Denver Biscuit Co.
- Infinite Monkey Theorem
- Savory Spice
- Sweet Cow Ice Cream
- Trunk Nouveau
- Zero Market
- Twenty additional restaurants and stores

Employers will be hiring for more than 150 positions at the ““food-centric, community-inspired marketplace.” When Stanley Marketplace opens, restaurants and retail shops will be joined by health and beauty facilities, professional services and an event center. Stanley is located in northwest Aurora, just north of Denver’s Stapleton neighborhood. Visit www.stanleymarketplace.com/ for more information.

Pre-registration for the hiring event is required and can be done at <http://www.adworks.org/index.php/events/event-detail/3625/>. The full list of hiring employers is also available at this link. An industry targeted resume and professional dress are strongly encouraged and attendees should arrive 15 minutes early.

The Arapahoe/Douglas Works! Workforce Center is located at 6974 S. Lima St., Centennial 80112. Workforce Centers also are located in Littleton, Aurora and Castle Rock. For more information on Arapahoe/Douglas Works! call 303-636-1260 or visit the A/D Works! website at www.adworks.org
