Arapahoe County seeks citizens to serve on Cultural Council

Vacant positions open to residents in Aurora, Centennial, Englewood, Littleton and Sheridan

Littleton, Colorado --- The Arapahoe County Board of County Commissioners is seeking applications from residents who are interested in serving on the Cultural Council.

The Cultural Council is responsible for distributing funds from the metro wide Scientific and Cultural Facilities District sales tax to qualified Arapahoe County non-profit organizations and local governments. The Council prepares a recommended distribution plan and forwards the recommendations to the Board of County Commissioners for review, ratification and submittal to the Scientific and Cultural Facilities District Board of Directors for final funding approval.

Cultural Council appointments will be made in November. Four members are up for reappointment with representation from the following cities:

- Three - City of Aurora (includes vacancy)
- One - City of Centennial
- One - Cities of Englewood, Littleton and Sheridan

Qualified applicants must reside or own property in Arapahoe County and must live in the city or cities where representation is needed. The application deadline is Oct. 19.

To fill out an online application, visit the County's web site at www.arapahoegov.com and click on "online tools." Applications also are available at the Commissioners' Office in the Administration Building. For more information or to have an application mailed or faxed to you, call Carol Dosmann at 303-795-4531.
