Arapahoe County 4-H offering summer programs for youth

Mountain to Metro and Urban Ranchers Day Camp offered through CSU-Extension

LITTLETON, CO --- Summer is fast approaching and now is the time to think about camps and activities for your children. Arapahoe County 4-H is offering two unique programs this summer, Mountain to Metro and Urban Ranchers Day Camp.

Mountain to Metro takes youth on a three day, two night adventure through the mountains of Clear Creek County and the Denver metro area. Participants will explore different communities, cultures, abilities and environments together.

When: June 27 – 29

Who: Youth ages 10 – 12

Cost: $75, register by June 12. Scholarships are available.

Urban Ranchers Day Camp is a popular program that pairs community youth with 4-H members in advance of the Arapahoe County Fair. Participants learn how to care for and show a goat alongside 4-H members and leaders. Other animals are also featured throughout the week. The camp concludes with an animal show and cookout where youth get to show their new skills to their family and friends.

When: 8 a.m. – noon, July 10 – 13

Who: Youth ages 8 – 13 (as of Jan. 1, 2017)

Cost: $95 before June 4, $125 June 4 – 26. Includes T-shirt, snacks, awards and cookout on last day of camp.

For more information and to register for either program, contact Danielle Ardrey at dardrey@arapahoegov.com or call 303-738-7977. Learn more about Arapahoe County CSU-Extension and 4-H programs at <http://arapahoe.extension.colostate.edu/>.
