Arapahoe County CSU-Extension offering free community workshops

Join CSU-Extension experts to learn lawn care, gardening tips, canning and more

LITTLETON, CO --- Green with envy over your neighbor's lawn? Looking to learn how to can and ferment? Arapahoe County CSU-Extension is offering a series of free extension enlightens workshops throughout the summer on a variety of topics.

Scheduled Extension Enlightens workshops include:

May 9: Lawn and Turf Care

May 16: Growing Tomatoes

May 25: Fermenting Your Own Yogurt

June 1: Making Wine Jelly

June 7: Japanese Beetle Control

July 11: Emerald Ash Bore Control

All workshops will be offered at two convenient times, noon – 12:45 p.m. and 5 – 5:45 p.m. The same content will be presented at each time. Workshops will be held at the Arapahoe County CSU-Extension office, 6934 S. Lima St., Suite B, Centennial, 80112.

Attendees must register online. The first 25 registrants for each workshop will receive a free gift.

Colorado Master Gardener volunteers and horticulture staff also are available to answer questions and assist with insect and plant identification, garden and plant landscape troubleshooting and general information.

For more information call 303-730-1920. Register and learn more about Arapahoe County CSU-Extension at <http://arapahoe.extension.colostate.edu/>.
