Arapahoe County seeking citizen to serve on Board of Adjustment Citizen needed to serve two-year term overseeing County's zoning regulations

Littleton, Colo. – The Arapahoe County Board of County Commissioners is seeking applications from residents who are interested in helping their community by serving on the Board of Adjustment.

The Board of Adjustment assists in interpreting and enforcing Arapahoe County zoning regulations. The board hears requests for zoning variances, applications for special exception uses and interprets zoning regulations for unincorporated Arapahoe County. Members consider statements and evidence provided by County staff, applicants and witnesses and vote on requests.

Applicants must be residents of unincorporated Arapahoe County. Experience in the following fields of study is not required, but helpful: real estate, construction, architecture, engineering or other land use experience. Board members commit to one meeting per month. The application deadline is June 4, 2012.

Interested residents can apply online. To fill out an online application, visit the County's web site at www.co.arapahoe.co.us and click on online tools. Applications also are available at the Commissioners' Office in the County Administration Building, 5334 S. Prince St., Fourth Floor, Littleton.

For more information on a particular board or to request an application by mail, call Carol Dosmann at the Commissioners' Office at 303-795-4531.
