Arapahoe County Animal Control rescues injured hawk

Injured hawk rescued and transported to Birds of Prey for rehabilitation and release

Unincorporated Arapahoe County, CO --- On Nov. 8, Arapahoe County Animal Control Officer Joe Walker responded to a call at the intersection of Nichols Avenue and Jordan Road to rescue an injured hawk, which had suffered a broken wing when it was hit by a car. Animal Control coordinated with Birds of Prey to transport the bird to their facility in Broomfield for rehabilitation and release.
