Arapahoe County seeking citizen to serve on Arapahoe County Foundation, Inc. Board of Directors

Littleton, Colorado – The Arapahoe County Board of County Commissioners is seeking applications from residents who are interested in serving on the Arapahoe County Foundation, Inc. Board of Directors.

The Arapahoe County Foundation, Inc. is a non-profit organization that accepts gifts, grants and charitable donations on behalf of the County's programs, services or special events. The Foundation provides funds to support and enhance the Arapahoe County Fair, sponsors special events and promotional activities and contributes to other local programs that promote the health, welfare and safety of citizens. Currently, the Foundation is focused on raising funds to expand the public parks, trails and event facilities at the Arapahoe County Fairgrounds and Regional Park.

The Foundation Board meets once a year, with special meetings scheduled as needed. The Board currently has one opening for a three-year term from Jan. 1, 2012 – Jan. 1, 2015. Applicants must be residents of Arapahoe County. The deadline for applications is Oct. 31.

To fill out an online application, visit Arapahoe County's web site at www.co.arapahoe.co.us and click on Boards and Committees under Online Tools. Applications also are available at the Commissioners' Office in the County Administration Building, 5334 S. Prince Street, Fourth Floor, Littleton. To request an application by mail, please call Carol Dosmann at 303-795-4531.
