Voting now underway in Arapahoe County 2011 Coordinated Election

Visit www.arapahoevotes.com to find voting locations or ballot drop-off boxes near you

Littleton, Colo. – Registered voters in Arapahoe County can now cast their ballots in the 2011 Coordinated Election at one of four Early Voting locations, open through Oct. 28. In addition, mail-in ballots are arriving in mailboxes of registered voters who requested one. Voters who wish to vote on Election Day can head to any Vote Center from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Nov. 1. The deadline to register to vote in this election has passed.

“This year, registered voters can cast a ballot in whatever way is most convenient for them,” said Arapahoe County Clerk and Recorder Nancy A. Doty. “Voters have until late-October to request a mail-in ballot or visit an Early Vote site. Citizens who prefer to go to the polls on Election Day can choose from any one of 17 Vote Centers on November 1, regardless of where they live in the County.”

Registered voters have until Oct. 25 to request a ballot by mail, or until Oct. 28 to pick one up at any Clerk and Recorder office. Mail-ballots can be returned by U.S. mail with a 64-cent stamp or delivered to one of 16 convenient drop-off locations by 7 p.m., Nov. 1. Visit www.arapahoevotes.com to request and track your mail-in ballot, as well as find locations and hours for ballot drop-off boxes.

Early Voting is available through Oct. 28 at the following four sites. Hours vary at each location, so please visit www.arapahoevotes.com for a complete schedule:

- Arapahoe County CentrePoint Plaza, 14980 E. Alameda Drive, Aurora
- Arapahoe County Elections Facility, 5251 S. Federal Blvd., Littleton
- Arapahoe County Lima Plaza, 6954 S. Lima St., Centennial
- Smoky Hill Library, 5430 S. Biscay Cir., Centennial

Vote Centers, open 7 a.m. – 7 p.m., Nov. 1, will be held at the following locations. Vote Centers replace traditional precinct polling places, so there is no assigned place to vote and voters can choose any location.
