Extension hosts Legacy and Estate Planning Workshop Dec. 7

Interactive seminar offers guidance for organizing financial and personal effects

Aurora, Colo.— Arapahoe County's CSU Extension will host a Legacy and Estate Planning workshop, 3:30 to 9 p.m., Dec. 7 at the Arapahoe County Fairgrounds, 25690 E. Quincy Ave., Aurora.

The workshop will offer guidance for attendees regarding important end-of-life decisions related to financial assets, real estate, personal possessions and family histories.

The Legacy portion will cover decisions for leaving a legacy, and not just an inheritance, such as transferring and distributing personal possessions of sentimental value, passing on family traditions and history, sharing hopes and blessings, and communicating final instructions and last wishes. It also will address tips for completing paperwork regarding a decedent, powers of attorney and securing passwords and documents.

The Estate Planning portion will offer advice related to leaving real estate, financial assets and debts, selecting a professional advisor and other decisions related to an estate.

The workshop fee is $50 for the first two members of a family, plus an additional $10 for each additional family member, which includes dinner, a workbook and a CD-Rom of A Lasting Legacy. Attendees are encouraged to attend the entire workshop, or they may select only the Legacy portion of the workshop from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. or the Estate Planning portion from 6:30 to 9 p.m.

The featured speakers are CSU Extension Agricultural and Business Management Economists Jeffrey Tranel and Norm Dalsted.

To register to attend, please call Extension Office at 303-730-1920 or visit www.arapahoeextension.org to download a registration form.
