Give your child a shot at success

Arapahoe County partners with Tri-County Health to provide low cost immunizations for children

Aurora, Colo. – Arapahoe County has partnered with Tri-County Health to provide low cost immunizations for children. The 2008 Health Clinic will be held once a month at Arapahoe County’s CentrePoint Plaza, 14980 E. Alameda Dr. in Aurora.

“Proof of immunizations is a requirement to receive many of the Federal Assistance Programs,” said Arapahoe County Commissioner Rod Bockenfeld, Board liaison for the Human Services Department. “By partnering with Tri-County, we hope to effectively respond to and serve the communities’ low-income children and families.”

The 2008 schedule is as follows:

June 18

July 16

August 20

September 17

October 15

November 19

December 17

Parents should bring their child’s shot record and Medicaid card (if the child has one). No child is turned away for inability to pay. Families without insurance are charged an administration fee of $14 per immunization or a donation is welcome. Medicaid is accepted.
