Former Arapahoe County Commissioner passes away Services will be held Friday for Jeannie Jolly who served the County six years

Littleton, Colo. --- Jeannie Jolly, who served as an Arapahoe County Commissioner from 1989 - 1995, has died. Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m., Friday at the Deer Trail High School gym, 350 2nd Ave, Deer Trail.

Jolly's career as an Arapahoe County Commissioner started in 1989 when she was appointed to fill the vacancy of Bob Brooks after his resignation. She was elected in 1990 and served as Chair of the Board of County Commissioners that year and for 1993.

Jolly worked along side fellow Commissioners John C. Nicholl and Thomas R. Eggert. This was one of the last three-member Boards, prior to the approval of the increase of the Board to five members.

As a resident of Deer Trail, Jolly provided strong representation for residents and business in the rural, eastern areas of Arapahoe County and was supportive of programs that benefited that area.

Jolly was actively involved in the Arapahoe County Fair and instrumental in relocating the 1990 County Fair to the Town of Deer Trail. She was involved with the initial construction and development of the Arapahoe County Community Park in Dove Valley which has benefited thousands of Arapahoe County residents.
