Partnerships without Boundaries

Arapahoe County's 2007 annual report available in the March 20 edition of the Denver Post and Rocky Mountain News

LITTLETON, CO --- On Thursday morning, nearly 100,000 Arapahoe County households will receive a copy of the County's 2007 Annual Performance Report with their Denver Post and Rocky Mountain News.

Partnerships without Boundaries is the theme of the Annual Performance report and it highlights some of Arapahoe County's many accomplishments in 2007, as well as emphasizes our commitment to provide exceptional services, while at the same time using tax dollars wisely.

Included in the 16-page report are dozens of examples of ways in which Arapahoe County is working together – in partnership – with local cities and towns, businesses, organizations and citizens to make Arapahoe County a great place to work and live.

Whether it is working with 16 cities, towns and organizations to preserve the South Platte River; spending a weekend to construct a new home for a single mother and her daughter; or building a coalition of support to improve the intersection of Arapahoe and Parker roads; Arapahoe County believes partnerships are the keys to good government, especially in an era of limited resources and increased demands.

Copies of the report also are available in County buildings, and electronically through the web site at www.co.arapahoe.co.us. If you would like a copy, contact Andrea Rasizer at 303-795-4284 or by e-mail at arasizer@co.arapahoe.co.us.
