

EATING DISORDERS

Children's Hospital Eating Disorder Program.....720-777-6289

Services: specialized inpatient medical care. A day treatment program with services 7 days a week including extended day treatment. Outpatient therapy including medical, nutrition, individual, family and group therapy. A consultation clinic

Eating Recovery Center.....303-825-8595

www.eatingrecoverycenter.com

Services: provide residential, out-patient, intensive outpatient, and partial residential services to children with eating disorders. They have two facilities. The north location treats children 17 and older. 600 S. Cherry St, Glendale opens 11/10 and will treat children 10-17 years old (may treat children younger depending on circumstances). Payments: accept all insurance accept Medicaid or Medicare. Can work with Medicaid if they have a Carve Out (another insurance to manage their mental health treatment). Cannot accept payment from a government agency.